The Two Pankops

I wish to acknowledge the help and cooperation in compiling this booklet. Nearly every family in this listing, had one or more persons helping me , gathering data and legends of the family. I and my aides had a curiosity of our heritage, and sought a solution to this situation. This booklet is the result. Many of us will be disappointed and some will be pleased with our forebears past , but as with all peoples, our beginnings started with a simple heritage. At the beginning of this article , around 1800, all the population , or nearly so of Europe was agricultural. Europe was just beginning the industrial revolution and the people were getting restless. These people were educated in the most rudimental way. In Germany education was compujsory, and many spoke several languages, but the region was a place of many nationalities caused by the many national conflicts. In the late 1700's and early 1800's travel became more common place and the facilities were available. The awakening began ----and with it the emigrations of the 1800's.

The Origin of the Two Pankops and Their Descendants with excerpts from letters by Theodore Witzke.

The Pankops , Streichs , Blechs , Leuidkes , Schumanns , Witzkes , and the rest of the emigrants that appear in this genealogy, first emerged in Mlichkowa, in the province of Posen, Germanyin the early 1800's as peasant farmers. They were brought to the area by large land owners, to grow root vegetables and cabbage on the infertile lowlands of Poland, and to fulfill Prussia's political aims of colonizing the lands , it had taken in the partition of Poland. The main crop was the sugar beet. The work was back breaking , the winters were frigid , the food was monotonous, and the native Poles were unfriendly.

The Polish nation , which had been a medeval power and which had fought off the swedes , Russians , and the Turks during the 17th and early 18th centuries , had been carved up by Russia , Prussia , and Austria. Prussia taking the part west of the Vistula (Wisla) river , Russia taking the part to the east of the Vistula , and austria taking the part to the north of her borders. The repressive measures of the Prussians , their insistence upon the use of the german language , and their laws aimed at forcing the Poles to sell their lands to the Germans, had engendered in the natives a hatred toward the colonists. The Germans returned their dislike and would get quite angry at any inference of Polish origin.

We can imagine that lacking physical comforts , leisure time and friends, set down in a strange land amid a hostile populance , this group of families felt that fates had dealt miserly toward them. When the opportunity to emigrate to America arose , they came. They came over a period of twenty years, each helping the other. Some could not or would not come. As of lately , in correspondence , with some of the Witzke relatives, I have found that after World War I the German speaking populance of Poland were relocated near the baltic sea. This was done in a period from 1920 through 1922. They stayed there and established themselves there quite comfortably. After World War II they were again uprooted , being move several times, often in displaced persons camps. Most of them are now in west Germany. There is a supplement in this genealogy with some names and some late addresses.

The Witzkes and Nichols came from Prussia. , settling in the village of Mlichkowa , province of Posen, Germany . Theodore Witzke's Maternal grandmother was Eva Berge. Eva's maternal grandmother was a Dune. No given name known. The Dunes came from the province of Franks. It was in the western part of Germany , next to France. It was the scene of many conflicts , and was sometimes the property of France and then again that of Germany . After W . W . I it was called Alsace Lorraine.

The two Pankop brothers came to Mlichkowa from a near by Russian held territory. They came at an early age to escape servise in the Russian army. In the early 1800s all Russian males over the age of 18 had to serve twelve years in the army. The first born or eldest were exempt to carry on the family and care for those at home. Service in the German army was only four years. Those two brothers , Ferdinand and Johann Frederich, married girls from Mlichkowa and started the the Pankop family that emigrated to America. It is they and their descendants that are listed in this genealogy. the spelling of their name in Germany was Pankop . In Russian territory it was Pankow.

The settlement of Mlichkowa was near the Vistula (Wisla) river and Russian held Poland. Mlichkowa was the Polish name used. Milchdorf was the German name . They meant the same , milk village. It was a settlement of Germans , who associated very little with the Poles around them. The nearest large town , near them was Inowroclaw . Their village was loosely spread and had only one or two stores to supply their necessities. Everything else came from Inowroclaw with their mail . Inowroclaw is twelve miles from Mlichkowa and lies north of a line between Warsaw, Poland and Berlin, closer to Warsaw than to Berlin. It is about one hundred miles south of the Baltic sea and the former freeport of Danzig , now the Polish city of Gdansk.

The people in this genealogy were peasant farmers in their native land. Their ancestory was unquestionably German , although their names indicate that their forebears had names not German. They were in a portion of Europe that had been partitioned back and forth. The area had also been in the path of Napoleon's war with Russia. The country had been ravaged and many people had been displaced.

As Peasant farmers , they had very little. They also had large families , making them doubly poor. They had no money or very little, and were very frugal. They could and did exist on very little. Of Necessity many of them practised other trades when not occupied in the fields. they were tin smiths , shoe makers, blacksmiths , and many other skills. Of course all the women were able to spin their yarn and thread to weave their cloth and knit , to make their clothes. After their emigration , this ability , to live on so little , built for them a reputation of miserliness. This was an unjust assumption , because their saving and conserving was an innate or inborn trait or heritage. Often the younger generation had to take their elders to task , to get them to provide for themselves adequately. They were still trying to save too much when there was no need. They were proud of their success in this country and of their German heritage. They were farmers in Germany and Sucessful land owners in the United States. As in Europe , in their time , land represented wealth.

In the 1800s Germany had compulsory education. Every one completed six years of schooling , the equivalent of our eight grades. The emigants all sent their children to school , to Lutheran schools if possible. Education was important to them and many of their grand children were teachers.

The Decendants of Ferdinand and Johann Frederich Pankop.

This is a geneological listing , intended only to show the relationship of all persons mentioned in this article. It can not be construed as a legal geneology, in that much of the material is folk lore , personal interview, and cemetery records, and can not be authenticated. The years covered are from the early 1800's to 1978.

Ferdinand Pankop and his brother Johann Frederich Pankop were born in a German speaking province in western Europe that was under the domination of Russia. They left their home and went to Mlichkowa , Germany to escape service in the Russian army. Service in the Russian Army was of a longer duration than that of the German nation. Ferdinand married a Mary Leuidke and Johann (Fred) married Eva Berge. Ferdinand , his wife , and all their children emigrated to Noble county , Indiana. Johann died in Germany at the age of forty two leaving his wife , Eva , with six children . Eva and three of her children also emigrated to this area after the children's marriages. The three were Mrs. Edward Blech , Mrs . Julius Witzke and Mrs. Adolph Streich.

Ferdinand , in all probability, started the move to this country, by being the first to settle here. Mary Leuidke Pankop's mother had died when she was a child, and her father had remarried. One of Mary's half sisters, Pauline, married August Hass and also came to Noble county. Mrs. Hass died at the age of 108, and a daughter , Augusta Sprandel, recently (1977) died at the age of 98. In my many inquiries into family histories , I was often asked about the Pankop's relationship to the Hass Family. Pauline Hass was an aunt to all of Ferdinand's children (On the maternal side), But no blood relation to the children of Johann Pankop. One of Johann's granddaughters was a neice of Pauline's, because she married a son , Karl, of Ferdinand's.

Ferdinand lived back a long lane; now county road 350 N . He owned a tile mill just west of Hockenbarger's corners. Hockenbarger's corner were at the intersection of what is now county roads 500 E and 415 N . It was a country store and the focal point of the communities' activities. My Grandfather Blech worked at this mill after he left his sponsors , Mr. and Mrs. Graves. Later Ferdinand's two sons , Julius and Karl (Charlie) operated the mill. Julius also owned a farm just south of Lisbon, on the east side of the road. He had a brick yard on the south end of the farm, where 350 N tees into State road 3.

The Family of Emma Adeline Schumann
and Karl Ferdinand Pankop

Emma Adeline Schumann was the daughter of Ernestine Pankop and Johann Schumann, a peasant farmer in the Village of Mlichkowa , Posen, Germany. They lived very near the Vistula (Wisla) river, which was then the boundary between Prussian and Russian held territory. She often told of watching the Russian Cossacks and soldiers patrolling across the river from their village. Emma's father, Johann , died in the mid-1880's and her mother married Adolph Streich.

In 1883 her Uncle Ferdinand Pankop came to the United States with his eldest son , Julius , to obtain sponsorship or money for the passage of the rest of his family. In 1884 his wife Mary , and their children , Karl , Anna and infant Helena came to America. It is with out doubt that Ferdinand obtained sponsorship for Emma and many of the other relatives probably through the membership of the Lutheran church.

Emma Adeline Schumann came to this country and Noble county at yhe age of Eighteen. Her fare was paid by the Henry Lohman family . The Lohmans operated a successful grocery business at the corner of Main and Williams streets in Kendallville, Indiana. Emma paid them back by working as a house keeper for them . Emma married her mother's first cousin, Karl (Charlie) Pankop in 1894.

Helena Pankop And Henry Hasselman

Julius Pankop and his father, Ferdinand, came to America in 1883, Leaving the rest of the family behind in Germany. They worked hard and saved their money and in 1884 , they brought the rest of the family over to this country. Helena was only six weeks old at this time. She grew to adulthood near Albion , Indiana, and married Henry Hasselman, a cousin of her brother's wife Dora. Henry's father was William Hasselman. It is believed that William had emigrated from Germany , but his children were born in this country. Henry had brothers and sisters , but I do not know their names . Two brothers from Indianapolis and a Lady named Lena Hasselman Horne visited Henry and Helena. Mrs. Rudolph Rewinkle and a William Miller were also related to Henry. Henry's father , William , died in 1881.

Johann Frederich Pankop and Eva Berge

Eva Berge Married Johann Frederich Pankop at an early age. I have no dates on the births of her earlies three children. her fourth child , Wilhemine was born in 1854? Her husband Johann Frederich was referred to as "Fred" in my talks with Theodore Witzke. He died in Germany at the age of forty two. He left Eva with six children and a very hard life. Three of her children emigrated and three did not. It is believed that Eva sailed with her daughter , Wilhemine Witzke and her family in 1892. She spent most of the rest of her life with relatives, her daughters and Grand children. She died at Julius Witzke's home south west of Kendallville.

Adeline Pankop never emigrated. One of her sons came to Noble county. There was correspondence with her and her family , but nothingas of late. I have been in contact with the Bublitz and Knauer families , descendants of the paternal side of the Witzke family , but have had no answer from Waldemar Krahn , Adeline's grandson. Nothing is known of Adeline's two brothers , Julius and Wilhelm Pankop.

There were other children, but no names or dates are known.

Albert Krahn was a fun loving man. He always seemed to be happy and smiling. I remenber the flash of a gold tooth. He loved to play cards and to have a glass of wine , which he made and to which you were treated if you were at his house. He liked to play a card game called giegle. It was a popular card game in Germany. He would come to my parents house and bring a crony , Albert Schmuck , so there would be a foursome for cards.

Pauline Zuelke Witzke left an article on her and her family's past in which she had written the following: " Emilie Amalie Bublitz nee Witzke was born on May 20,1874 in Klein-Morin in the county of Hohensalza in Posen". (Before W.W.I called West Prussia). (Hohensalza is now called Inowrowclaw). "I married in 1898. From 1922 to 1924 we moved from one refugee camp to another. The Poles sent us out. In 1929 we settled in Neuenhagen in Pomerania , on the Baltic sea. Until 1947 we had every thing and were satisfied. Then we were again evicted by the Poles and went to Zethau in Saxony. This is in the ezgebirge (Mountains) on the border with Czechoslovia. In 1949 my husband died and is buried there."

In 1950 Pauline went to live with her son, Ernst on the Rhine river. (At Gross Rorheim). She died there in 1960. Elizabeth Bublitz, her daughter-in-law, states that this was an odessey that they all took part in.

The Family of Wilhelmine Pankop and Julius Ernest Witzke

Julius Witzke first came to the United States in May of 1885. He returned to Germany in 1886. The family then emigrated in 1892. They left their colony , Mlichkowa, Posen, Germany on March 7 , 1892 , landed in Baltimore , Maryland on the twenty fourth , arrived in Kendallville, Indiana on the twenty seventh, and settled on the Cyrus Wible farm south west of Kendalville.

Paul Witzke , his oldest son , had come over two years earlier , in 1890, probably to facilitate their passage. Julius had married Wilhelmine Christina Pankop. Her parents were Johann Frederich Pankop and Eva Berge. Eva also came in 1892 and died at Julius's home in 1917. Julius Witzke's parents were Ernest Julius Witzke and Eva Nichols . They had six children. They were Albert, Emma , Augusta , Johann , Julius , and one n me unknown. (See supplemental sheets for partial Witzke listing)

According to legend , Julius's grandfather Nichols was a wealthy land owner. When Napoleon went through Prussia on his way to conquer Russia , he conscripted Grandfather Nichols , his horses and mules for the war. After six months the Grandfather escaped only to die of pneumonia. Julius's Grandmother Nichols was dead and the children were scattered . There were no laws to protect the orphans rights , and a wealthy land owner paid the taxes on the land and claimed it as his own.

Julius Witzke was a shoe maker in Germany as well as a farmer , as his Father had been before him . He made mostly the boot type foot wear . When he was not farming in this country , he continued making shoes and boots for his family and the community.

The Family of Ernestine Pahkop.

Ernestine Pankop married Johann Schumann about 1873. They were peasant farmers in German held Poland. After fathering four children Johann died. In 1887 Ernestine again married to an Adolph Streich. They had five children , four surviving infancy. All eight of Ernestine's children came to the United States. Some preceded the family and some followed .

Ernestine Pankop Schumann Streich , her husband Adolph, and their children sailed from Germany on October 24,1901 , arrived in Baltimore Maryland on November 11 and settled at South Boardman , Michigan for a short time. They moved to Avilla , Indiana and then in 1903 they moved to Wayne Street in kendallville, Indiana where they built a house only two houses from Ernestine's nephew , Julius Witzke Jr.

Adolph worked at the Flint and Walling Manufacturing Company in their foundry. Often , he would sit on the porch in the evening and play his concertina.

Otto and Ernestine , two of the Schumann children, were young adults when their Mother and the rest of the family left and stayed in Germany until Otto could complete his service in the German army. Otto never married . He operated a blacksmith shop on east Mitchel street when he first came to this country. He later bought and operated a farm in DeKalb county until his death. Ernestine was married only for a short time late in life. She was employed as a domestic and as a practical nurse.

Elsa left her husband and family and disappeared. She was heard from in Texas in 1944, and again in 1944 from California. The last Communication from her was from a Pacific Grove , California postmarked letter.,in January of 1948. I have tried to find if she lives in PacificGrove ,and no one is listed under that surname. The California Bureau of Vital Statistics has no listing of that surname in their data from 1940 to the present time.

The Family ot Mathilda and Edward Blech

Edward Julius Blech's parents were Michael Walter Blech and Josephine Harting. They were born and died in Germany. His mother died when he was thirteen. His father remarried, he could not agree with his stepmother and left home. His where abouts were unknown until he was drafted into the German army . All german males were drafted at age twenty one and had to serve four years in the army.

The general locale of the Blech's residence was referred to as Polish Germany. The exact location was at Mlichkowa , province of Posen , Germany.

Grandfather Blech had brothers and sisters , but it is unknown how many. In all probability some of them were half brothers or sisters. Two of his sisters came to the United States some years after he did. They only visited him once or twice. One of them went to Kansas and the other , a Mrs. Hardwig went to Michigan. Nothing has been heard of them since.

At the age of twenty five , Grandfather Blech was released from the army and married Mathilda Johanna Pankop. They worked as field hands on a large farm or estate. Grandmother must of helped in the main house at times , because she told of the lady giving her oldest son a slice of bread and jam. They lived in a small dirt floored hut on the estate. Breakfast and supper was eaten in their home , but dinner or the main meal was eaten at the kitchen of the big house. Meat , except fatty cuts were seldom served , except on special days or holidays. Most of their fare was vegetables, grains, and other products raised on the estate. Vegetables that were not good enough or large enough for the market were carried home in the women's aprons and eaten or stored in a root cellar next to their house for the winter's use. Everything they had came from the farm.

They had few possessions , and it was a small wonder they longed to come to The United States for a better life. One small possession my Grandmother brought with her was a small basket, that she later used for buttons. When she was old enough , she was entrusted with the care of the geese. She was a goose girl. One of her companions during the day was an old shepherd. He pulled field grasses and made the little basket for her , while the geese and other animals grazed. I have seen this basket years ago at Grandmothers , but can find no trace of it now.

In a conversation with Teddy (Theodore) Witzke , a nephew of Grandma's I learned that Eva Berge married Johann Frederich Pankop. Teddy referred to Johann as " Fred ". Eva and Johann had six children before his death at the age of 42. Three of these children came to this country. They were Mrs. Julius Witzke , Mrs. Adolph Streich, and Mrs. Edward Blech.

My Grandfather and Grandmother Blech emigrated in 1890. They came by sail boat in steerage . Their third child was born the day after their arrival. They were sponsored in their emigration by a Mr. and Mrs. Graves, in all probability upon the recommendation of Ferdinand Pankop , Grandmother's uncle who had come over several years before. Grandpa worked for the Graves for over a year to pay off their indebtiness to them , the Graves. They took very little money , just enough for the neccessities. They lived in a tennant house furnished only by by items given them by the Graves or relatives. When they left their sponsors , they moved to a log cabin on the back of some one's farm . The cabin was thought to be on the August Hass farm. It was a two room cabin with a ladder leading to a loft where the two boys slept. Uncle Walter was five , my father Julius was three and aunt Jennie(Johanna) was one when they lived here.

The cabin was in the Sweets Lake area, in Jefferson township , Noble county , Indiana. While they lived here they acquired a cow and some chickens and geese . Grandma worked for the women on neighboring farms, often taking something in leiu of money for her labors. Very often this would be a runt pig or an orphaned lamb to add to their larder.

Grandpa worked for Grandma's Uncle Ferdinand in his tile mill. They soon saved enough money to buy a forty acre farm and move there. The farm was back a long lane , now Co. Rd. 350 N. and just west and across the road from Her uncle Ferdinand's. There was only three houses on yhe road and two still remain. An extension of this lane or road was also used as a rough trail to the Hass farm . This trail has been closed for years. The forty acres was partly mucky and over grown . Here they raised the rest of their family, making the farm very successful. They raised corn , potatoes , onions and other crops to sell both to the merchants of Kendallville and for shipment to larger cities. When the farm seemed too small for their operation , they sold it and bought one hundred and twenty acres a mile and a half south of Helmer , Indiana. They lived here until they retired and moved to Kendallville in the 1920's

Eva Berge Pankop came to this country in 1894. I have been told that she came at the same time as her grandson Albert Krahn. Albert was the son of her daughter , Adeline and Henry Krahn. They never emigrated.

As to the lineage of the Pankop family , it is known that Ferdinand and Johann Frederich were brothers and were born in Russian held Poland. They were of German heritage and German speaking. The names of any of their forebears are unknown. Ferdinand , his wife Mary and his sister-in - law, Eva are all buried close together in the Lake View cemetery in Kendallville. Many of their immediate relatives are buried nearby.

Ferdinand's son Julius at one time lived at South Boardman , Mich. and is buried there with his first wife , Dora Hasselman. His second wife , Clara Eckhardt Pankop Taylor is a resident of Miller's Merry Manor at LaGrange , Ind. Other relatives mentioned in this listing are also buried at South Boardman.

Grandpa and Grandma are buried at the Fairfielf Center cemetery in DeKalb county. There are many other relations buried there also.
